NOTES FROM THE BOARD

The Board would like to acknowledge all of the great volunteer work done by the community. Special thanks to John and Carol Armellini for all of the work done on the pool house, Carol Beam for replacing the handrail covers at the pool steps. (Great colors!) Many thanks to Fran Conway and John Berry for cleaning the Brazilian peppers out of the oleander line between the Life Center and Timothy. Thanks to Janet Dematteis for the scraping, filling and painting all the mailbox posts in the neighborhood and also for helping to keep our plants under control. And finally, a big thank you to Phyllis Niemi and friend for replacing the mailbox posts beyond repair.

The community spirit is so much appreciated. It is really nice to see the coming together of everyone.

MAINTENANCE TIP FOR THE

MONTH: To keep your hose bib working easily, turn your hose bib on and off and spray WD-40 or a silicon spray on the threaded connection once a month. This will help keep the hose bib easy to turn.

Next Board Meeting:
November 13th, 2025, at the home of Karen Eddy, 4101 Timothy Dr. at 4:00 PM. Please have your requests in to a Board member no later than 11/10/24. Thanks.

From the Editor

Can you believe that this month marks the 23rd year this newsletter has been in existence? It's hard to believe that I have been editor for all of it with the exception of 5 year when Carol Anne Dunn gave me a break. It's a job I have enjoyed doing and I really welcome your input as it is your Newsletter. If you have something to share or include, please just email it to me. Thanks for all your support!

Until next month –
Gail Williams

Welcome to Osprey Village

By Sandy Chance

Welcome to Osprey Village
next to the preserve,
Where over-55 folks daily
observe Critters chatter, flap, and
quack
In tidy lines or one big pack.

The ducks parading in tidy
rows,
While squirrels put on climbing
shows.
No one tells them what or why—
They just arrive beneath the morning sky.

In Osprey Village, past the gate,
Where folks are wise and ducks
are great,
The squirrels play games from tree to tree,
While sandhill cranes march proud and free.

The humans stroll or cruise in carts
With neighborly and cheerful hearts.
They wave hello, enjoy the breeze
And think of all their memories.

The bunnies bounce in brown disguises.
The birds all chirp in different sizes.
The critters think they run the place.
The humans just provide the space!

Each evening as the sun dips
low,
To the quiet pond the ducklings
go.
They waddle there from near and far Past canals, gates, streets, and cars.

The animals think they are in command
With twitching tails, and beaks
they stand,
But everyone here knows the score.....

It's Osprey life! Who could ask for more?
